TO-DAY'S GAMES. Wheeling at Youngstown, Joledo at Fort Wayne, Columbus at New Casile, Dayton at Mansfield,

Five hundred enthusiastic fans saw the Stories make it three straight with New Castle yesterday afternoon at the Island park. It was a remarkable game in some respects; remarkable for ight hitting of the visitors, to make but one safe drive rdee's clever delivery; remarka-the number of bases on balls , gave—fourteen—and remarka-the fine fielding of the locals and ragged work of the champions, who the rasged to make nine misplays with-managed to make nine misplays with-out the turning of a hair. Strelt essayed to do the pitching for the visitorse, but one inning was enough for the young south-paw, who was then succeeded by Figgemier, who was an enigma for the Wheelings last was an enigma. for the vaccious, however, season; on this occasion, however, there was nothing mysterious in his curves, and the new Stogles proceeded to show him up to the queen's taste. disposition has to be made with them now that the first of May has rolled around. They would have been given to Columbus, but for the fact that the Columbus management seems to think it has the only team on earth—or did before the series with Youngstown. The four players mentioned would strengthen any team in the Inter-state outside of Wheeling.

"I wish to say a few words about Pitcher Scott, of Cincinnati," writes Bob Rothermel, of the Wheelings, to the Sporting News. "I umpired all the exhibition games that Cincinnati played in New Orleans and I saw enough to convince me that with Scott on the slab, the Cincinnati club will be a formidable adversary to any of them, and the team that defeats him will be ready to admit that they did it in a ball game. The season of 1900 finds me with the Wheeling Inter-state league team. Our proliminary practice indicates that we will play a fast game by the opening of the n. Despite the fact that I will undertake to play a strange position, I ex pect to give a good account of myself during the season. I predict that Wheeling will be 1-2-3 at the end of the

What to Do.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy fulfills every wish in curing rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, biadder and every past of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often during the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best.
